DEPARTMENT OF ECE

I am proud to have been a student of KSR Institute for Engineering and Technology, particularly the Electronics and Communication Engineering (ECE) department. The faculty members and the infrastructure provided by the college helped me develop a strong foundation in my field of study.

Not only did the college provide an excellent academic environment, but it also actively participated in ensuring that students were well-equipped for their future careers. The college's placement cell did an outstanding job in organizing workshops, training sessions, and recruitment drives, which helped me secure a job with Capgemini with a good annual income.

The guidance and support that I received from the faculty members, both inside and outside the classroom, were unparalleled. They helped me with my doubts and queries, and their insights have been invaluable in my career growth.

Overall, I would highly recommend KSR Institute for Engineering and Technology, and the ECE department, to anyone seeking quality education in a supportive and nurturing environment.

I joined K.S.R IET in 2015. I would say that this college has given me platform to not just to learn but to enhance my interpersonal skills. I was more like an introvert during my schooling and I was able to be public speaker only because of the support and encouragement I had in this college. Overall, I have had supportive faculty and good environment throughout my study.
